

COME JOIN US

IN FRANCE

AGROECOLOGY INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

June 8 - July 12, 2017 in Lyon, FRANCE

To whom?

Dedicated to undergraduates with a Science / Humanities Major

Course credits: 9 ECTS (European Credit Transfer System)

→ 6 ECTS for scientific requirements

→ 3 ECTS for linguistic/cultural requirements

Duration: 5 weeks

Cost: 2,000 euros

(including accommodation, excursions, and field trips)

Coursework consists of:

- Lectures
- Case studies
- Field work
- Personal investigation
- Group project-based learning
- Seminar : Oral Defene

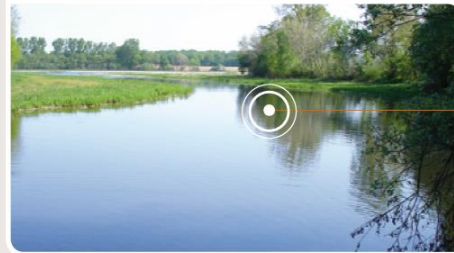

Academic Summer Program

Applying agroecological practices

Organic farming in mountainous regions

Managing biodiversity

Fish pond systems in agricultural landscapes (Dombes)

Diversifying food systems

Economy of sustainable food systems (Alps)

Click here to download the syllabus on our website

Linguistic/Cultural program (offered in common with Lyon Polytechnical Institute)

French language and culture: 40 hours

Visits :

- *Lyon (UNESCO World Heritage Site),
- *Vineyards,
- *CERN (European Centre for Nuclear Research in Geneva, Switzerland),
- *Cheese makers in the Alps,
- *Chocolate factory,
- *Other companies.

Tasting of traditional French foods

French meals classed by Unesco as The Intangible Cultural Heritage

Welcome to Lyon

Some videos about Lyon

Lyon- Unesco World Heritage City

Some videos and testimonies about previous Summer Schools

- Summer School
- Shelby's testimony
- Shelby's blog

Don't wait to register and click below

Une école d'ingénieurs au cœur de la vie