

CALS

Teaching Retreat

Emerson Alumni Hall

An Environment for Learning

9:30-10:45AM

Session 1: An Experiential Environment for Learning

Experiential Learning: A Workshop with the Field and Fork Teaching Farm

In this workshop we will discuss the importance of experiential learning to the adult learning cycle and examine opportunities for incorporating experiential learning into courses. We will focus on utilization of the campus food system and the Field and Fork Farm and Gardens as campus resources toward this end.

Presenter: Anna Prizzia, Campus Food Systems Coordinator

11:00AM-12:15PM

Session 2: An Inclusive Environment for Learning

Creating a More Inclusive Student Experience

Four CALS students with diverse backgrounds will share their experience as students, both inside and outside the classroom. Time will be set aside for the audience to ask questions of the panelists.

Panel Facilitator: Jeanna Mastrodicasa, Associate Vice President of Operations, UF/IFAS

Student Panelists: Kiona Elliott (Horticultural Sciences), Victor Guerra (Plant Science),
Raymond Odeh (Plant Science), & Shavone Taylor (Animal Biology)

12:15-1:15PM

Lunch & CALS Faculty Meeting

Join the Dean for lunch and updates regarding various initiatives within CALS.

Facilitator: Elaine Turner, CALS Dean

1:30-2:45PM

Session 3: A Safe Environment for Learning

Community Preparedness for the Active Shooter

As a leader in the classroom, have you ever thought about the many 'what if' questions following various headlines in the news? Join this session for some practical advice on how to be prepared in some of those worst case scenarios.

Presenter: Captain Jeff Holcomb, University of Florida Police Department