CALS awards the largest undergraduate scholarship portfolio at UF with more than $1 million of college and department scholarships.

CALS has one of the top 5 highest enrollments in study abroad programs at UF, with 20+ college-specific programs across 6 continents.

CALS students represent 88 different countries; come from all 50 states.

73% of bachelor’s graduates live and work in Florida.

58% of bachelor’s graduates plan to earn an advanced degree.

71% of bachelor’s graduates completed a study abroad, research or internship experience.

CALS hosts Florida Youth Institute, a week-long summer program for high schoolers to explore science careers that help solve global food insecurity.

73% of bachelor’s graduates live and work in Florida.

58% of bachelor’s graduates plan to earn an advanced degree.

71% of bachelor’s graduates completed a study abroad, research or internship experience.

25 graduate majors

23 undergraduate majors

18 STEM majors in CALS, the most out of all colleges at UF

6 undergraduate pre-health majors

8 master’s & 2 bachelor’s degrees online

One of the 5 largest colleges of agriculture and related sciences in the U.S.

45+ student organizations

6,593 total students

2,383 graduate students

3,829 undergraduate students

381 non-degree students

42,000+ living alumni around the world

CALS has more USDA teaching awards than any other land-grant institution.

Home of the ONLY formal undergraduate upper-division Honors Certificate Program at UF.