

2024-25 Professional Advisor of the Year Portfolio
GUIDELINES FOR APPLICATION

This document explains who is eligible for the PAOY award and how to prepare the application materials. Information on the roles and responsibilities of the individuals involved in the process of applying for the award and reviewing the applications is available in the "Guidelines for Administration."

PURPOSE: These awards are to encourage and reward excellence, innovation, and effectiveness in professional undergraduate advising. "Professional advising" denotes work done by personnel specifically tasked with an advising role, rather than by instructional/professorial faculty who perform advising as part of their service effort.

ELIGIBILITY:

- 1) Nominations for the college-level undergraduate Professional Adviser awards may be solicited from former or current students, faculty members, unit heads, and/or higher-level administrators.
 - Self-nomination is acceptable at the college level.
- 2) Individuals who received a Professional Adviser award at the college or university level during the previous two years are not eligible.
 - Current award committee members are not eligible, nor can they submit letters of support.
- 3) Nominees must be professional advisers (not OPS appointees) who have been responsible for advising for at least the two most recent calendar years.

NOMINEES' RESPONSIBILITIES:

- 1) Complete the appropriate section of the Professional Adviser of the Year Awardee Information Cover Page (available at <https://aa.ufl.edu/awards/uf-internal-awards/teacher--adviser-of-the-year/>) and include it as Page One of your portfolio
- 2) Solicit letter of support from your unit head
 - Letter should be submitted directly to College Coordinator
- 3) Solicit up to three letters of support from former or current students
 - Letters should be included in the portfolio
- 4) Submit a single PDF portfolio that includes all material outlined in the Guidelines for Application to your College Coordinator.

SPECIFICATIONS FOR LETTERS OF SUPPORT

- 1) Unit head's letter of support:
 - 1-2 pages that directly address how the nominee's advising meets the criteria enumerated in the table below
 - Submitted directly to the College Coordinator, who adds it to the portfolio
- 2) Student letters of support:
 - Up to three letters from former or current students
 - Submitted to faculty for inclusion in the portfolio

PORTFOLIO MATERIALS:

As you prepare your portfolio, be aware that:

- All sections of the portfolio should be typed in 12-point font and labeled in header with candidate's name and department.
- If you use UF colors and/or logos in packet materials, you should adhere to the most recent UF Brand Center Guidelines: <http://www.identity.ufl.edu/>.

- You may include links to publicly accessible web-based materials (e.g., no Gatorlink required for access), but please select representative examples.
- You should organize your portfolio into sections using headings listed in the table below; do not add additional sections.
