

2023-2024 UNDERGRADUATE TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARDS
GUIDELINES FOR *APPLICATION

This document explains who is eligible for the TOY award and how to prepare the application materials. Information on the roles and responsibilities of the individuals involved in the process of applying for the award and reviewing the applications is available in the "Guidelines for Administration."

PURPOSE

These awards encourage and reward excellence, innovation, and effectiveness in undergraduate teaching.

ELIGIBILITY

- 1) Nominations for college-level undergraduate teaching awards may be solicited from past students (e.g., not under your supervision while you are preparing this application), faculty members, department chairs, and/or higher-level administrators.
 - Self-nomination is acceptable at the college level.
- 2) Individuals who received an undergraduate teaching award at the college or University level during the previous two years are not eligible.
 - Current evaluation committee members are not eligible, nor can they submit letters of support.
- 3) Nominees must be full-time faculty members (lecturers/instructional professors, clinical, tenure-track, or tenured, but not OPS appointees) who have taught at least two undergraduate courses during the relevant calendar year (spring 2023, summer 2023, and fall 2023.)

NOMINEES' RESPONSIBILITIES:

- 1) Complete the appropriate section of the Undergraduate Teacher of the Year Awardee Information Cover Page (available at <https://aa.ufl.edu/awards/uf-internal-awards/teacher--adviser-of-the-year/>) and include it as Page One of your portfolio
- 2) Solicit letter of support from your chair/director
 - Letter should be submitted directly to your College Coordinator
- 3) Solicit up to three letters of support from former students
 - Letters should be included in your portfolio
- 4) Submit a single PDF portfolio that includes all material outlined in the table below to your College Coordinator

SPECIFICATIONS FOR LETTERS OF SUPPORT

- 1) Chair's letter of support:
 - 1-2 pages that directly address how the nominee's teaching meets the criteria enumerated in the table below
 - Submitted directly to the College Coordinator, who adds them to the portfolio
- 2) Student letters of support:
 - Up to three letters
 - Submitted to faculty for inclusion in the portfolio

NOTE: Do not solicit letters from students you are supervising during the semester you prepare this packet

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PRESENTING COURSE EVALUATIONS

To prepare your evaluations for inclusion in the portfolio:

- 1) Access and download your evaluation report through the path outlined on the Gator Evals OPT Download site: <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/instructors/instructor-reports/gatorevals->

- myufl-report/.
- 2) The first item in the report is a table listing your evaluation summaries alphabetically by course prefix. Delete all the rows of data except those for courses taught in the terms relevant for this award.
 - You may reformat the table and add headings so that courses taught in the same semester appear together.
 - 3) The rest of the report is a printout of student evaluations from most- to least-recent semester and year.
 - Delete all evaluations except those for courses taught in the terms relevant for this award.
 - Add the abbreviated table and appropriate evaluations to the portfolio as item 3.1.

PORTFOLIO MATERIALS

As you prepare your portfolio, be aware that:

- All sections of the portfolio should be typed in 12-point font and labeled in header with candidate's name and department.
- If you use UF colors and/or logos in packet materials, you should adhere to the most recent UF Brand Center Guidelines: <http://www.identity.ufl.edu/>.
- You may include links to publicly accessible web-based materials (e.g., no Gatorlink required for access), but please select representative examples. Do not include links to entire courses.
- You should organize your portfolio into sections using headings listed in the table below; do not add additional sections.
