

UF IN EUROPE

CITIES IN CIVILIZATION | SUMMER C: JUNE 3 - JULY 8, 2025

COLLEGE INFORMATION

College of Agricultural and Life Sciences

Department of Soil, Water, and Environmental Sciences

Courses are taught by UF faculty

PROGRAM

Cities are the engines of cultural creativity and technological innovation. This program will explore and seek to understand why and how cities continue to catalyze the growth of human civilization, from ancient Rome and the Italian Renaissance, to modern culture and technologies. Spend 5 weeks traveling from London to Rome with ~5-day stops in Paris, Berlin, Vienna, and Florence. Learn more on Instagram @cities_in_civilization.

LOCATION

This program takes place in multiple European countries: London, UK; Paris, France; Berlin, Germany; Vienna, Austria; Florence, Italy; and Rome, Italy. The program starts in London and travels by train to each city, ending in Rome.

EXCURSIONS

This program includes many tours of key technological and cultural innovations and historical milestones, including the Globe Theater, Louvre, Chartres Cathedral, Sachsenhausen, Schonbrunn Palace, Uffizi, and Vatican. The program will travel as a group across Europe, from London to Rome. You will cross the English Channel and take an overnight train from Vienna to Florence.

HOUSING

Students will stay in three-star hotels in the walkable heart of each city. In each location, rooms will be shared with another student on the program.
