

UF IN GREECE

LEADERSHIP FOR THE AGES | SUMMER A: MAY 8-21, 2025

COLLEGE INFORMATION

College of Agricultural & Life Sciences

Department of Agricultural Education & Communication

PROGRAM

During this immersive program, students will take two courses that explore leadership in a global context through the lens of sustainable cities and communities (UN Sustainable Development Goal 11). Leadership, sustainability, and agriculture will be at the forefront of our conversation. You will have the opportunity to explore UNESCO world heritage sites while learning about global leadership. Many visits will allow you to indulge in Greek foods and experience them from farm to table. Sustainability and agriculture will be at the forefront of our conversation as we explore all that Greek cities, communities, and islands have to offer.

LOCATION

The experience begins in Thessaloniki, travels through the Greek countryside of Meteora, includes a stay at an agriturismo in Peloponnese, and out to explore Greek islands of Paros and Naxos, before ending up in the birthplace of democracy – Athens.

EXCURSIONS

Students will tour Thessaloniki; visit Pella, the birthplace of Alexander the Great; tour saffron, cheese, olive, fig, orange farms and wineries; visit the monasteries at Meteora, tour Delphi, visit the Temple of Apollon, see the Corinth canal, explore the islands of Naxos and Paros; learn about honey production; take a sunset sail; and tour the Acropolis and Parthenon.

HOUSING

You will share rooms with other students at various hotels.
