HAS Green Academy

Den Bosch, Netherlands | FALL, SPRING, OR ACADEMIC YEAR

PROGRAM

Are you interested in food, agriculture and horticulture, international business, sustainability, biology, plants, or animals? Then you are welcome at HAS Green Academy! HAS has over 3,000 full-time students. Their new(er) name reflects the shift they're making as a university, towards a future as a go-to center of expertise for agriculture, food, and the living environment.

ACADEMICS

HAS Green Academy has positioned itself as one of the leading sustainability and agriculture schools in Europe. They offer a wide range of English-taught courses for incoming exchange students, within the fields of Agriculture, Food, and the Living Environment.

Specific course options include Animal Science, Geo-Information, Plant Research, Circular Agriculture, Farming, Greenhouse Technology, Future Food Systems, Global Trade, Horticulture & Business Management, and International Agribusiness.

LOCATION

's-Hertogenbosch, more commonly called Den Bosch, is a wonderful city full of historic buildings, wonderful museums, great shops and welcoming cafés and restaurants. Go for a stroll and discover the medieval architecture, take a boat tour of the centuries-old canal system, or go for a bicycle ride along the fortresses. Den Bosch has many beautiful attractions to offer. Even more importantly, it has a warm and welcoming atmosphere. Jazz cafés, little restaurants, trendy bars – Den Bosch natives definitely know how to enjoy the good life. Den Bosch is a wonderful city to walk around in and enjoy the views, shopping, parks, and a range of activities.

HOUSING

HAS Green Academy does not have its own student dorms, and the offer of other student rooms and apartments in 's-Hertogenbosch is scarce. However, exchange students are able to use the Accommodation Mediation Service offered by HAS, in cooperation with Student Rooms Brabant (online platform with student rooms) and BrabantWonen (housing agency).

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Open to all majors
- Must have completed 12 + hours at UF
- Minimum 2.5 GPA
- Must be in good standing

COSTS

By studying on a UF Exchange program, you will pay UF tuition for the semester. However, your housing, meals, and other expenses will be paid directly to the University of Bonn or a third-party. Please see here for UF's current tuition rates and note that exchange students typically enroll in 12-18 credits while abroad. A $425 nonrefundable application charge is due at the time of application.

FINANCIAL AID

Most financial aid that you would receive on campus during the semester can be applied toward the cost of this study abroad program; however, all financial aid eligibility is determined by Student Financial Affairs. You must speak with a financial aid advisor to determine what aid can be applied to the cost of this study abroad program, including scholarships. To contact SFA, visit www.sfa.ufl.edu/help and select 'Study Abroad' from the drop-down menu.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The UF International Center (UFIC) sponsors a large number of study abroad scholarships each year. In addition to the UFIC Scholarships, many other colleges, departments, and national organizations offer scholarships, too. Visit the UFIC website to browse these opportunities, which are organized into different categories.
