YOUTH DEVELOPMENT, IRISH CULTURE, & SERVICE LEARNING | SUMMER B 2022 (June 19 - July 31)

COLLEGE INFORMATION

College of Agricultural & Life Sciences

Department of Family, Youth, & Community Sciences

Courses are taught by UF faculty

PROGRAM

The purpose of this 6-week service learning program is to provide a transformational experiential learning experience in the context of youth development in Galway and Gweedore, Ireland. This program will provide youth development, service-learning, and Irish cultural immersion experiences and learning opportunities, along with collaborating with community youth development-based organizations. We will also have pre-departure orientations at UF, prior to leaving for Ireland.

LOCATION

Galway, Ireland is known for its brightly colored cafes and pubs, boundless live music, eclectic street performers and world-class arts and entertainment. History and modernity unite in this city to create an ideal environment for discovering the essence of Ireland's culture, language and people. Gweedore, Ireland is known for being one of Europe's most beautiful and densely populated rural areas. It is the largest Irish-speaking counties in all of Ireland.

EXCURSIONS

Excursions to cultural sights are planned. Possibilities include: Spiddal, Aran Islands, and Cliffs of Moher. Along with several visits around County Galway and County Donegal to experience Irish Culture, including local music venues, local festivals, and natural resources.

HOUSING

In Galway and in Gweedore, you will be paired together to stay with host families in a central location to your service-learning placement. Breakfast and dinners will be provided by your host families.
