

UF IN FLORENCE

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES | SUMMER A: MAY 15-JUNE 24, 2022

COLLEGE INFORMATION

UF International Center

Courses are taught by UF and local faculty

PROGRAM

This program is offered in partnership with Florence University of the Arts (FUA) and in collaboration with USF. You can earn up to 6 credits taking Italian language, Italian culture, or miscellaneous humanities courses taught by UF and FUA faculty. This program gives students the opportunity to practice their Italian language skills, discover Florentine and Italian culture, and explore the Tuscan countryside.

LOCATION

Florence, Italy was the hub of medieval European trade and finance, and the birthplace of the Renaissance. The historic center showcases the vestiges of its power and wealth with spectacular palaces, churches, public buildings, city squares, gardens, monasteries, museums, and art galleries.

EXCURSIONS

Several courses include a field learning component, in which you will travel to another location in Italy. You will also have endless opportunities for weekend breaks to explore the Tuscan countryside and other European destinations.

HOUSING

You will stay in a shared bedroom in a shared apartment with 3-6 other students. Apartments are fully furnished and located throughout the city. All apartments are within walking distance or a short commute to where classes are held. Apartments include free Wifi. You can request to live with another program participant, but requests are not guaranteed. Single rooms can be requested for an additional fee.
