

ISARA - Lyon

Lyon, France

The College of Agricultural and Life Sciences at the University of Florida offers students the opportunity to study in Lyon, France. This program is available in summer terms, the fall or spring semesters, and during the academic year.

Highlights

- ISARA - Lyon was created to train students to become managers specialized in agricultural management and marketing, agrifood technologies, and the environment.
- The location attracts talented students from all over the world.
- Languages of Instruction: English and French
- Required GPA: 2.5

Location

ISARA - Lyon is located in Lyon, in the southeast of France. This location provides easy access to companies, research centers, and professionals working in agriculture, food industry, rural development, and environment sectors.

Lyon ranks second in the number of students in France. This location possesses a rich cultural and gastronomic tradition and its 'old town' was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. The city hosts the Biennale de la Danse (an international dance festival), as well as the Nuits de Fourvière music, dance, and theatre festivals held in an ancient outdoor Roman Amphitheatre. While Lyon is a big city, it has remained easy to explore on foot.

Eligibility

- Exchanges are open to students from all majors who have completed at least 12 hours of coursework at the University of Florida.
- Most programs require a minimum GPA of 2.5 (higher for some programs).
- Each applicant must be nominated by the University of Florida and then apply to the exchange partner as an international exchange student.
- Each applicant must submit a copy of his or her transcript to the exchange partner.

Application Deadlines

Fall and Academic Year: early May

Spring: mid-October

Summer: late March

Note: Some exchange programs have earlier deadlines.

Tuition

Tuition at the host school is waived for exchange students, who instead pay tuition directly to the University of Florida at their usual tuition rate.

Financial Aid

University of Florida students needing financial aid should apply through UF Student Financial Affairs. Normal eligibility for aid may be used while studying abroad as an exchange student. This includes using the Bright Futures scholarship and the Florida Pre-Paid College Plan.

Non-UF students needing financial aid must apply to their home institutions.

Scholarships

For fall, spring, and academic-year scholarships administered by the University of Florida International Center, the deadlines for application are: early March for programs starting in fall; and early October for programs starting in spring. Applications forms are available on the UF International Center web site:
