

2018-2019 UNDERGRADUATE FACULTY ADVISING/MENTOR OF THE YEAR AWARDS
GUIDELINES FOR APPLICATION

PURPOSE: These awards are to encourage and reward excellence, innovation, and effectiveness in undergraduate faculty advising/mentoring.

ELIGIBILITY:

- 1) Nominations for the college-level Undergraduate Faculty Advising/Mentor awards may be solicited from:
 - Former students, faculty members, department chairs, and/or higher-level administrators.
 - Self-nomination is acceptable, but must be selected at the college level before being forwarded for consideration at the university level.
- 2) Individuals who received an Undergraduate Faculty Advising/Mentor award at the college or university level during the previous two years are not eligible. (Current award committee members are not eligible nor can they submit letters of support.)
- 3) The individual must be a faculty member (tenured, tenure-track or other regular faculty appointment including lecturer or clinical faculty, but not OPS appointees) who has been engaged in undergraduate faculty advising/mentoring for at least the two most recent calendar years.

PACKET MATERIALS:

- 1) Nominees must submit a portfolio of material as outlined on Attachment #2.
 - a) Chair's letter: Should directly address how nominee's mentoring fulfills the criteria.
 - b) Mentoring Philosophy: a statement of the nominee's approach to mentoring, the pedagogical methods they employ, and the ways in which they have met the criteria.
 - c) Documentation: Required and Optional. The documentation should, wherever possible, address the criteria.
- 2) All sections of the portfolio are to be labeled in header with candidates name and department and typed in 12 point font. The portfolio cannot exceed page limitations. Those whose portfolios exceed the page limits will not be reviewed at the University level.

CRITERIA:

- 1) Evidence of an approach to mentoring that is engaging, rigorous, creative, and innovative.
- 2) Evidence of an ability to promote critical, independent, and original thinking in students, including in active guidance of student research projects, portfolios, etc.
- 3) Evidence of effective communication with and responsiveness to students.
- 4) Evidence of leadership in mentoring (which may include supervision of student assistants and associates and instructors; publications; professional engagement, etc.).
- 5) Evidence of lasting impact on students and investment in their success beyond UF.
